

A social and political drama of 28 episodes, telecast by many Arab-speaking TV stations in 2004. It tells the true story of the media which is totally controlled and supervised by the government. It depicts the government's endeavours to promote entertainment and comedy programs among TV program makers while trying to ban programs that criticize corruption and mismanagement. These four drama series were directed by Haytham Hakky

□ Watch this TV drama on youtube

The Life of Kahlil Gibran

The first TV series about the early life of Kahlil Gibran, the Lebanese-born writer and painter born in 1883. The 30-part series was broadcast throughout the Middle East in 2008. An important figure in Arab literature, Gibran's career in America which included his work The Prophet made him one of the most famous writers in western popular culture. Directed by Fardos Atassi.

Watch this TV drama on Youtube